IRMA CLAIMS FORSYTH COUNTY RESIDENT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

September 12, 2017

On September 11, 2017 at 5:36 p.m., the Forsyth County Sheriff's Office responded to a report of a tree down on an automobile on Shadburn Road in North Forsyth. Deputies and Firefighters arrived to find a large tree had fallen on a passenger vehicle in a private driveway of a residence along Shadburn Road.

The vehicle's occupants were entrapped and the driver was able to be removed. The female passenger unfortunately remained entrapped and Deputies and Fire personnel worked diligently to rescue her. Sadly, the female passenger was fatally injured.

The female has been identified as Nancy Eason, 67 years-old from Cumming, Georgia.

Mrs. Eason was a well-known and respected resident and was a retired court reporter who worked for both the Forsyth and Cherokee judicial systems for many years.

The driver of the vehicle identified as Mike Eason, suffered minor injuries. He is the husband of Mrs. Eason and is a retired Special Agent in Charge from the Georgia Bureau of Investigation and served as Chief of the Cumming Police Department from 2005-2009.

The entire Forsyth County community is mourning the loss of this special lady.
